4. The requesting member must provide the association and its members with access to the research results and/or present findings at the annual conference.

Elections:

1. Any candidate for an office shall be a certified school counselor or counselor educator with the exception of retired counselors and appointed liaisons. Candidates must meet the requirements of the by-laws and this booklet.
2. The membership shall elect the President-Elect in odd years.
3. The membership shall elect the Elementary Vice President and the Secondary Vice President on alternate years from the offices of Middle Vice President and Post-Secondary Vice President.

4. An electronic ballot will be prepared once a single slate of candidates has been received from the nominations and elections committee. The ballot will be sent out to the membership along with the candidates' picture and bio. When the ballot is sent out, the membership shall be informed of the date that the electronic voting will be closed. The ballot for new PSSCA officers will be open for 28 days.

5. Once validated, the results will be shared with the membership. The results must be released by April 30th or sooner annually.

ASCA Delegate Assembly, Leadership Development Institute, and Conference:

1. The number of voting delegates to represent PSSCA is based on criteria established by ASCA.

2. PSSCA has two voting delegates who are the President and President-Elect who assume their offices on July 1st.

3. The PSSCA delegates to LDI are the President, President-Elect, Executive Director, PSSCA School Counselor of the Year (the summer they are recognized) and 2 board members chosen from applications received. LDI Delegate Applications will be made available to all board members and are due the Sunday immediately following the annual conference. If more than two board members apply, the delegates will be selected by a committee made up of the Executive Director, President, President -Elect, and SCOY. Priority will be given to individuals in leadership positions, especially the officers and executive committee members. Any additional delegates will be approved by the governing board. The President shall appoint any replacement if a delegate is unable to attend.

4. The association shall reimburse the delegates for ASCA delegate assembly and/or conference attendance using the reimbursement rates approved by the board. When plane tickets are purchased by PSSCA, the travel insurance will also be purchased. The board shall decide if any other person attending the ASCA delegate assembly and/or annual conference will be reimbursed for his/her expenses. Should an attendee elect to take family member(s), their expenses will not be included in the reimbursement.

5. The delegates and any other person reimbursed by the association for attendance shall share the information received at the ASCA Delegate Assembly, Leadership Development Institute, ASCA Annual Conference, or any other conference with other PSSCA members through either a newsletter article or a conference presentation at the annual conference or regional meetings. Failure to present may constitute dismissal or request for reimbursement.
